

2008 Historic Resource Survey
North Side, City of Granbury
Property No.: 101
744 North Crockett
Granbury College Dormitory

Preservation Priority:

High—Contributes to Recommended Historic District

Recommended Historic Landmark/RTHL/National Register Listing

These are the most significant resources in the survey area and they contribute to local history or broader historical patterns and possess strong association with (a) historic context(s). High priority properties are outstanding or unique examples of architecture, engineering or crafted or vernacular design. These properties retain a high degree of architectural or physical integrity, having few alterations, or can be easily returned to their original character. High priority properties may meet one or more criteria for listing in the National Register of Historic Places; they are likely to qualify to be designated as Recorded Texas Historic Landmarks and City of Granbury Historic Landmarks.

Construction Date:

Circa 1873 to 1915

Resource Type/Subtype:

Building/House

Current Owner(s):

Billy J. Friesen

Stylistic Influence:

National Folk, pyramidal

Brief History:

Local oral history says this house is the first story of the old Granbury College Dormitory

Area(s) of Significance:

Early local development of education

Description of Resource:

Frame construction, Hardie plank over old wood siding

Hipped roof, composition shingles

Double-hung, vinyl windows, added bay in front

Single-door primary entrance

Gable roof porch, classical columns

L-plan, rectangular

Pier and beam foundation

One story, 1,338 square feet

Large rear ell addition

Large corner lot near cemetery

Barn and storage building in rear

Integrity:

Location, setting, feeling, association

Possible Threats:

Development, major alterations

Existing Historical

Designations/Protections:

None