

2008 Historic Resource Survey
North Side, City of Granbury

Property No.: 155
501 Grove

Preservation Priority:

Low

These properties have no association or unidentified association with history or historic context(s). They have been moderately to severely altered, losing their original character and architectural integrity. These resources usually do not meet National Register criteria or criteria to be designated as Recorded Texas Historic Landmarks.

Construction Date:

Circa 1950s

Resource Type/Subtype:

Building/House

Current Owner(s):

James A. Stroud (life estate)

Stylistic Influence:

National Folk, pyramidal

Brief History:

According to neighbor Butch Stembridge, he was born in this house during the 1940s on a corn-husk bed

Area(s) of Significance:

Description of Resource:

Frame construction, asbestos siding
Hipped roof, composition shingles, exposed rafter tails
Wood and aluminum windows, metal awning
Single-door primary entrance
Enclosed, screened-in porch
Four square plan
Pier and beam foundation
One story, 1,067 square feet
Corner lot, mature trees, shed, and carport

Integrity:

Location, setting

Possible Threats:

Neglect, Development

Existing Historical

Designations/Protections:

None