Admission Price Drop at City Pool; Pool Closing Early for Graduation

Granbury, Texas – The price for general admission to the Dana Vollmer Municipal Swim Center has gone down for the Summer. The price has dropped from $5 for general admission to $4. The price change goes into effect immediately and is the same for all ages.

The swim center will also be closing early on Thursday to celebrate the high school graduation of five of their lifeguards. The pool will close at 4 p.m. but will open for regular activity hours Friday.

The five graduating seniors include: Kathryn Pooler, Clayton Smith and Wyatt Roy, from Granbury High School; Jarret Slatten, from Lipan High School; and Melina Pena, from Tolar High School.

There are two seniors working as beach monitors at the Granbury City Beach Park who will also be graduating. They are Bryanna Langston, from Granbury; and Riley Southern, from Brewer High School.
