

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: February 8, 2018

Contact: Bethany Warner, Public Information Officer, bwarner@granbury.org

Granbury City Council Recognizes Staff Certifications

Granbury, Texas – At the February 6 Granbury City Council Meeting, City staff members who earned professional certifications in 2017 were recognized for their achievements. The City Council and City Manager Chris Coffman acknowledged the employees for their time and effort spent investing in professional education, which helps to improve the services the City provides and achieve the City's goal of offering exceptional service to the community.

Many employees across several City departments earned certifications in their specific fields in 2017:

Building Inspections, Permits and Code

Enforcement

Jeannie Stacks, Building Inspector Certification

Eric Swaim, Fire Inspector Certification

Community Development

Brett Mangum, Certified Planner (AICP)

Finance

Elizabeth Bailey, Certified Government Finance Officer (CGFO)

Public Works

Aaron Heathington, Pesticide Applicator License

Heather Walls, Pesticide Applicator License

Daniel Barge, "A" Water Certification

Roger Brock, "C" Surface Water Certification

Waylon Clayton, "C" Surface Water Certification

Jarrod Butler, "C" Water Distribution Certification

Municipal Court

Lauren Mcphate, Certified Municipal Court Clerk Level II

Police

Kent Barnes, Spillman Administrator Certification

Kevin Clapp, Master Peace Officer Certification

Brandon Duckett, Master Peace Officer Certification

Chris Weston, Master Peace Officer Certification

Garrett Wiginton, Master Peace Officer Certification

Chase Miller, Intermediate Peace Officer Certification

Keesha Watson, Intermediate Peace Officer Certification

Mikevin Singletary, Basic Peace Officer Certification

###