Lake Granbury Conference Center to Host Free Music Festival, '10 At The Lake'

Granbury, Texas – Lake Granbury Conference Center (LGCC) is turning 10 years old and inviting everyone to celebrate! Come out to the LGCC (621 E. Pearl St.) on Saturday, October 6 for 10 At The Lake, a free music festival complete with a scenic view of Lake Granbury and 10 different music artists and bands.

Shows begin at noon and run until 10:30 p.m. with stages indoors and outdoors (weather permitting) at LGCC. There will be food vendors on site and fun surprises planned as the day goes on.

- Noon-12:45: Aliza Ford is a Texas Country Music Association nominee for Emerging New Artist.
- 1:00-1:45: TinMan and Sheep Dog is the musical alter ego of songwriters Kevin Tinney and Chase Glover who have been writing and performing together for over 10 years.
- 2:00-2:45: Bo Phillips has had eight top-40 songs, with two in the top 10, on Texas Music charts over the course of his career.
- 3:00-3:45: Stacy Knight-Finley is a musician and budding songwriter from Winnsboro, Texas with a unique vocal style that has become popular on the East Texas live music scene.
- 4:00-4:45: Randy Brown is a staple in the Texas Music scene, and recently booked to play National Finals Rodeo.
- 5:00-5:45: Brent Alexander has shared the stage with Austin Allsup, Zane Williams, Wade Bowen, Kyle Park and Joey Green in venues across the state of Texas.
- 6-6:45: The Three of Us is a collaborative music project known for their unique style of three-part harmony.
- 7-7:45: Tyler Jones is the lead singer of Tyler & the Tribe which has a new album, Bright Side of the Earth, due out this year.
- 8-8:45: Truck Stop Gamblers are Granbury's own and a band to watch for in 2019. This country band has Rockabilly, Southern Rock, Blues and Texas Red Dirt influences along with a few must-hear mainstream rock cover songs.
- 9-10:30: Eleven Hundred Springs is a legendary band with 11 studio albums and one live album. They just opened the brand-new Texas Live facility in Arlington in August, and their new album will be out in early 2019.
